

Gateshead LINK

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. I will deal fairly and honestly with my colleagues, host and provider organisations and the general public
2. I will be loyal to and positively promote the reputation, integrity and aims of Gateshead LINK, avoiding any act which may bring the organisation into disrepute
3. I will act within the law and within any statutory or regulatory codes relevant to our work
4. I will act in accordance with the policies and procedures of Gateshead LINK
5. I will declare any personal interest which might conflict with or be seen by others to affect my ability to be fair and impartial when involved in Gateshead LINK
6. I will not accept any gift or money which has been proffered as a result of my position in Gateshead LINK, unless this is a donation to the organisation, which will then be declared
7. I will abide by Gateshead LINK's Policy on Representation when attending meetings on behalf of Gateshead LINK
8. I will treat all information relating to activities undertaken by Gateshead LINK as strictly private and confidential
9. I will treat all people with respect and sensitivity, recognising the dignity and value of each person
10. I will respect the privacy and personal choice of lifestyles, customs, values and spiritual beliefs of all people when undertaking Gateshead LINK activities
11. I will ensure that all relevant health and safety policies and rules are adopted when undertaking Gateshead LINK activities

12. I am committed to the principle of equal opportunity regardless of race, gender, marital status, sexual preference, ethnic origin, disability or religion when undertaking Gateshead LINK activities
13. I will perform my duties as directed by Gateshead LINK and undertake such training as may be required
14. I am aware that any conduct contrary to this Code of Conduct will be dealt with in accordance with Gateshead LINK's disciplinary procedure

All Gateshead LINK volunteers must sign up to the above Code of Conduct which states that they will declare any personal interest which might conflict with or be seen by others to affect their ability to perform their duties fairly and impartially

Declaration:

I have read the above Code of Conduct and agree to abide by its contents

Signed.....

Name in capitals.....

Date.....